

REFORC CONNECTING ACADEMICS

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Stephen Báthory between intended homogenization and de facto pluralisation

12–13 October 2023

Romanian Academy, Institute of Social Sciences and Humanities Sibiu

Venue: Sibiu, Bulevardul Victoriei, No. 40

THURSDAY, 12.10.2023

(all papers are approx. 30 min. with discussion)

09:00-09:15 Opening (Ulrich A. Wien, Maciej Ptaszyński, Ildikó Horn)

09:15-09:30 Herman Selderhuis (Apeldoorn, REFORC)

09:30-10:15 Ildikó Horn (Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest, Faculty of Humanities): Power, Crisis, and Conflict Resolution

10:15-11:00 Sándor Papp (University of Szeged, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences): Changing Relations. Báthory and the Sublime Porte

11:00 Coffee break

Art history, historiography

Chair: Ulrich A. Wien (Landau)

11:30-12:00 Klára Pakó (Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca, Faculty of History and Philosophy): Architect Simone Genga in Transylvania in the Service of the Báthorys

12:00-12:30 Zoltán Tomkó (University of Szeged, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences): A Catholic King's Heterodox Historian. Giovanni Michele Bruto as Stephen Báthory's Court Historian

12:30-13:00 Dana Jenei (Romanian Academy, G. Oprescu Institute of Art History): A Historic Event Painted in Transylvania in the Final Decades of the Sixteenth Century

13:00 Lunchtime break

Religious policy

Chair: Herman Selderhuis (Apeldoorn)

14:00-14:30 András Bándi (Lucian Blaga University, Sibiu, Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities): Religious Debates between 1571 and 1591

14:30-15:00 Vasile Rus (Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca Faculty of Letters): Jesuits in Transylvania

15:00 Coffee break

15:30-16:00 Edit Szegedi (Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca, Faculty of European Studies): The Religious Policy Towards the Romanians During the Báthory Reign

16:00-16:30 Adrian Magina (Westliche Universität von Timișoara/Rumänische Akademie), The Religious Policy of Báthorys: Catholics, Protestants and Greek Orthodox Believers in the the Banat of Caransebeș and Lugoj (1580-1605)

16:30 Walking City Tour

19:00 Dinner

FRIDAY, 13.10.2023

The relationship between the prince and the estates

Chair: Mária Pakucs-Willcocks (Bukarest)

09:00-09:30 Enikő Rűsz-Fogarasi (Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca, Faculty of History and Philosophy): Báthory and Kolozsvár

09:30-10:00 Balázs Viktor Rác (Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest, Faculty of Humanities): The Donation Systems During the Reign of Stephen Báthory, with Special Regard to the Szeklers

10:00-10:30 Julia Derzsi (Romanian Academy, Institute of Social Sciences and Humanities Sibiu): The Transylvanian Saxons during the reign of Stephen Báthory

10.30-11:00 Coffee break

Central government of Stephen Báthory

Chair: Florin Ardelean (Cluj-Napoca)

11:00-11:30 Tamás Fejér (Transylvanian Museum Association, Jakó Zsigmond Institute, Cluj-Napoca): The Transylvanian Chancellery of Stephen Báthory in Poland and its Personnel

11:30-12:00 Gábor Petneházi (University of Public Service, Budapest): Nihil absoluta unius gubernatione vel infirmius, vel perniciosius? Chancellor Kovacsóczy (and his Circle) on Governing Transylvania

12:00-12:30 Zsolt Bogdándi (Transylvanian Museum Association, Jakó Zsigmond Institute, Cluj-Napoca): Administration of Justice. The Princely Table of Stephen Báthory

12:30 Lunchtime break

15:00-15:30 Klára Jakó (Research Center for the Humanities, Institute of History, Budapest): Sources and Officials of the Transylvanian Principality's Eastern Foreign Policy in the Báthory Era

15:30-16:00 Richard Keračik (Charles University, Prague, Faculty of Arts, Institute of World History): The Policy of Stephen Báthory, the King of Poland-Lithuania, and its Relationship with the Netherlands during the late Sixteenth Century

16:00 Coffee break

16:30-17:00 Petra Mátyás-Rausch (Research Center for the Humanities, Institute of History, Budapest): Mining and Financial Government of the Principality of Transylvania during the Báthory Era

17:00-17:30 Emőke Gálfı (Transylvanian Museum Association, Jakó Zsigmond Institute, Cluj-Napoca): On the Edge of Europe? The Princely Residence of Stephen Báthory

17:30 Coffee break

Final discussion

18:00 Ulrich A. Wien, Maciej Ptaszyński, Ildikó Horn, Julia Derzsi

19:00 Dinner

Organizers

Arbeitskreis für Siebenbürgische Landeskunde (e.V. Heidelberg, Sektion Kirchengeschichte, e.V. Hermannstadt)

Romanian Academy, Institute of Social Sciences and Humanities Sibiu

University of Warsaw, Faculty of History

Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest, Faculty of Humanities

Leibniz-Institut für Europäische Geschichte

REFORC - Reformation Research Consortium

Demokratisches Forum des Deutschen in Siebenbürgen

Guvernul României, Departamentul de Relații Interetnice

Land Kärnten

